Restaurants and cafés at the Tower of London

Your chance to eat royally in fantastic historic surroundings

New Armouries Café

From freshly made sandwiches to salads, soups and tasty hot meals, this restaurant offers a foodie tour of London with self-service counters and serveries named after the capital’s famous food markets. Hearty roasts at the Smithfield counter, salads and artisan breads at Covent Garden and fish and chips at Billingsgate. After entering the site, simply walk up the main thoroughfare and turn left by Lanthorne tower to find the New Armouries Café.

Gourmet Sausage

Enjoy delicious British sausages accompanied by a variety of drinks. For a treat, why not indulge in award-winning ice creams? Raven’s Kiosk, a modern outdoor seating kiosk located beneath the castle walls, opposite Raven’s Shop.

Look Out for the ice cream cart which sells ice creams, drinks and crisps.

Tower of London

Jewel Kiosk, opposite the Jewel House exit sells drinks and ice creams.

PERKIN REVELLER

Celebrate great British food and its provenance with a delicious meal at the Perkin Reveller. With contemporary architecture and captivating views of the Tower and River Thames, dining at the Perkin Reveller is an experience to remember. Access the Perkin Reveller from the River Front just outside the Tower of London site.

Enjoy delicious British sausages accompanied by a variety of drinks. For a treat, why not indulge in award-winning ice creams? Raven’s Kiosk, a modern outdoor seating kiosk located beneath the castle walls, opposite Raven’s Shop.

Look Out for the ice cream cart which sells ice creams, drinks and crisps.

Tower of London

Jewel Kiosk, opposite the Jewel House exit sells drinks and ice creams.